

Federal Hiring Event for People with Disabilities April 26, 2010 Now is the Time!

sponsored by U.S. Office of Personnel Management and U.S. Department of Labor

Now is the Time to Begin Your Career of Service April 26, 2010 in Washington, DC

The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and the Department of Labor (DOL's) Office of Disability Employment Policy are pleased to announce a day of hiring people with disabilities. Learn more about the Federal Hiring Event for People with Disabilities on April 26, held in Washington, DC, by visiting www.USAJOBS.gov/DisabilityHiringEvent.asp.

Prospective applicants can find information on:

- Agencies participating in the Event
- Available positions and locations
- The application process for applicants, including documentation required
- Training for applicants and managers on the "Schedule A" process
- Web-based training tools with information on preparing for the event and interview
- Frequently asked questions

This invitation-only event is for people with disabilities who will have an opportunity to be interviewed by hiring managers. To be considered for positions throughout the United States, in the Federal government, and to receive an invitation to attend, resumes, along with appropriate documentation should be submitted to hiringevent@opm.gov, between March 8 to March 24. You may also submit resumes and documentation directly to participating agencies.

Now is the Time to Begin Your Career of Service